NDTV Reports 15% YoY Revenue Growth in Q1 FY26

Driving Leadership with Transformative Growth and Uncompromising Journalism

NDTV, one of India's most trusted news networks, today announced its Q1 FY26 results, registering a 15% year-on-year growth in revenue. This performance was fuelled by robust traction across platforms, strategic editorial investments, and a relentless focus on innovation.

Throughout the quarter, NDTV's television and digital platforms set new benchmarks in real-time coverage and in-depth reportage. From the Pahalgam terror attack and Operation Sindoor to the Ahmedabad air crash, NDTV's swift, credible, and insightful journalism became the nation's go-to source driving record viewership and reinforcing its leadership in both broadcast and digital news. Aligned with its long-term vision, NDTV has reshaped its operations to foster a leaner, more responsive newsroom, while bringing in a distinguished cohort of acclaimed anchors and veteran journalists. This strategic infusion of talent reinforces NDTV's steadfast commitment to credibility, incisive reportage, and journalism that always puts the viewer first.

This quarter, NDTV set the stage for fresh narratives with the launch of NDTV Marathi Manch and NDTV India Creators Manch. These initiatives celebrate powerful new voices - from the changemakers shaping Maharashtra's growth story to the innovators driving India's booming creator economy further deepening NDTV's connection with emerging narratives across the country.

These initiatives are propelling NDTV's transformation into a true multi-platform media powerhouse - setting the stage for lasting growth and a leadership that will shape the future of news and storytelling.
